You know what I like...

Drug Addicted Jewish Nazis

In both my personal life and business relationships, I have known many Jewish people from all walks of life. And I cannot remember any one of these folks speaking anything that could be construed in any way as reflecting any kind of adherence to any kind of Nazi political ideology or thought. I suppose, though, that in today's backasswards world, anything is possible.

The notion does, however, beg the question: What would be the policies and proposals of any such National Socialist Jewish Workers Party. Would they, for instance, propose rounding up all the Lutherans and relocating those Germanic Christians to concentration camps and out them to work making latkes.

And this brings up other questions. Ukraine is a relatively small country that seems to have adopted Western political and social values. So, if the Jewish Nazis in Ukraine wanted to open up a chain of concentration camps, the Environmental Impact Reports would delay a y such project by at least 3 years, probably more like 5. And by that time, the thing would have blown over and the Facebook crowd would move on to the whatever the latest fad would be.

No. I think we have some very bad communication here. Someone in Russia should have the chutzpah to tell Mr. Putin that Mel Brooks', The Producers, is a musical comedy. It is not a documentary.

Yet, if it be God's Will that a group of drug addicted Jewish Nazis are Chosen to save democracy and possibly Western Civilization itself, then all this goy has to say is: Gimmie a Hit. Poor me a small glass of Manischewitz. And pass the matzo. Oh, hell. I'll even have some brisket. And I haven't eaten red meat in over 2 years.

"L'Chaim. L'Chaim. To Life!" sang Tevye.

The Flag of The National Socialist Jewish Workers Party?

OK. If that doesn't get to you people, how about this. They hacked McDonald's. Not the one in the mall. Or that incredibly over priced one at Disneyland. Not one the several McDonald's on Pacific Coast Highway. No, my friends. They hacked McDonald's HQ! in Chicago, Illinois, USA. The very heart of the American Meat Processing Industry. Oh, the INFAMY! INFAMY! I say!
