State of the Union Edition

The Dispatches from the Front has pierced the veil that hides the truth about the SOTU speech. Reporters for Dispatches From the Front had unique access to certain attendees to the SOTU speech. Some of those unique takes on the SOTU are show below. Without a doubt, this is coverage only seen on The Dispatches from the Front. Well, also on my Twitter.

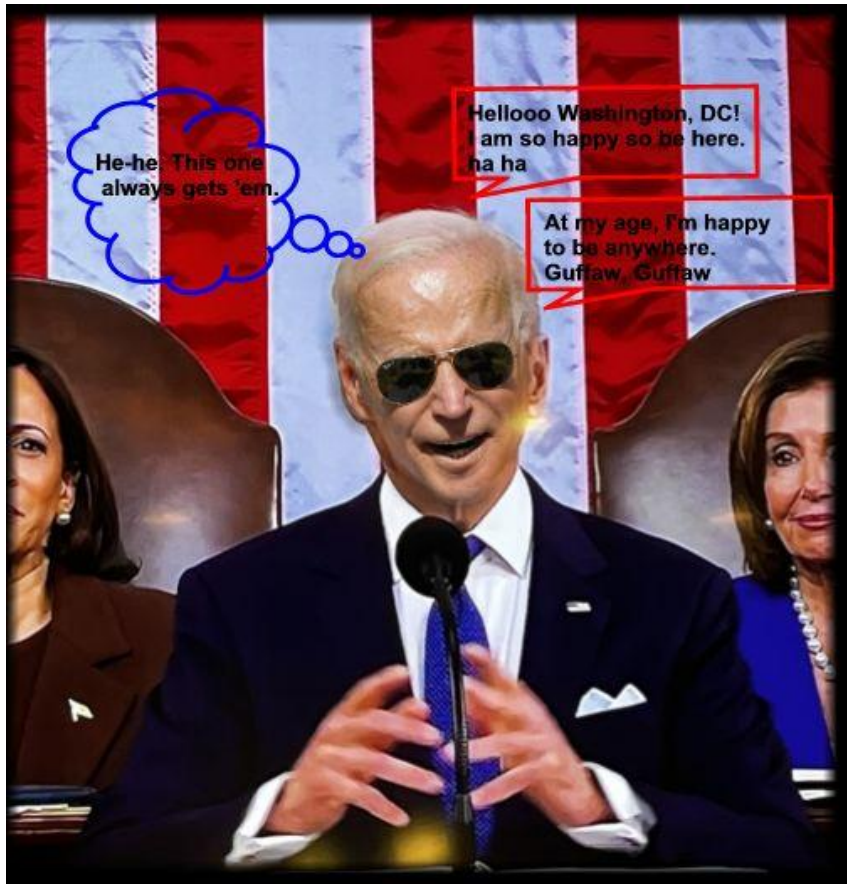

This sexagenarian male has 1 question for the august assembled body. How do men make it through a hour and half speech. The truth is out now.

Our reporter learned that certain men are offered catheters before they take their chairs. It's now a Dems do and Repubs don't kind of things.

The Grand Master was in rare form. He had his act down pat.

A divided Supreme Court made an appearance

Much was said about Nancy Pelosi's ill-timed standing up when everyone else remained seated. But this is fake outrage. We've all been there.

Controversy surrounded about the outbursts of Representatives Greene & Boebert at SOTU. The Tinfoilettes were confused about which TV show they were booked to appear on.

Was I right? SOTU coverage you can't find anywhere else.
